

Curriculum Documents

EYFS to KS1 Bridge

Computing

Organisation of knowledge	Safe, effective and competent use of technology Personal use, devices, safety	Computer science and coding Algorithms, programming	Using information effectively Personal information, software/application knowledge
Relevant ELG
KS1 readiness objectives	- Awareness of different technologies in and out of school - Awareness of the cause and effect of technology - Awareness of digital storage of information- photography, digital writing and research information - Awareness of input and outputs of devices - Can use technology to express creatively and constructively	- Awareness of the cause and effect of technology - Awareness of digital storage of information- photography, digital writing and research information - Awareness of input and outputs of devices - Can use technology to express creatively and constructively	- Awareness of different technologies in and out of school - Awareness of the cause and effect of technology - Awareness of digital storage of information- photography, digital writing and research information - Awareness of input and outputs of devices - Can use technology to express creatively and constructively